The
ONE
shore thing

We know all about sun, sea and sand; and continue to unearth some of the world's most Instagram-worthy hotspots. You might want access to an exclusive beach club, to practice water sports with a pro or just dreaming of remote wilderness on your very own private island. You might need a safe cove for spade-wielding toddlers or water toy galore for a gaggle of teenagers; whatever your beach brief, our sand-savvy staff will find you the perfect match.

Right: One&Only Reethi Rah, Maldives

The ONE for you

Six blissful beach hotels that guarantee a slice of sand for you

1

The one for picture-perfect views

ONE&ONLY LE SAINT GÉRAN,
MAURITIUS

Following a total revamp, all rooms now offer lagoon, beach or ocean views so there's never any doubt of where in the world you are.

2

The one for everyone

CARLISLE BAY,
ANTIGUA

Clever Carlisle Bay has split the beach in two: one end is for couples, the other for families. Genius on both sides and the lush setting isn't half bad either.

3

The one for direct beach access

FAIRMONT ROYAL PAVILION,
BARBADOS

One of few properties on the island to have rooms on the beach, this is the place for barefoot luxury. It also does a brilliant Sunday brunch to the lilt of steel pans.

4

The one for culture vultures

FOUR SEASONS RESORT
THE NAM HAI, VIETNAM

Sprinkled along a beach that seems to stretch into eternity, guests can get culture kicks at the three extraordinary UNESCO sites nearby. Simply the best of both worlds.

5

The one for family forays

VILA VITA PARC RESORT & SPA,
PORTUGAL

Action-packed fun is etched into the sand at Vila Vita Parc in the Algarve. Flying the family-friendly flag, days on land or water will never be dull at this all-singing, all-dancing resort.

6

The one beyond the beach

MANDARIN ORIENTAL CANOUAN,
THE GRENADINES

The powdery-sand beaches are an obvious draw here, yet with sailing, deep-sea fishing, snorkelling, guided hikes to Mt. Royal, and a Jim Fazio-designed golf course, there's also much more to explore.

The ONE for private islands

Recluses have never had it so good

From your very own Indian Ocean atoll to the coolest private outpost in Polynesia; from going solo in Zanzibar to being castaway in Cambodia or the Caribbean, here we hand-pick five of the best private islands. Shhh, try to keep them to yourself!

A 45-minute seaplane flight north of Malé is the far-flung, turtle-shaped Velaa Private Island. Swoop down over sparkling turquoise waters to your very own slice of paradise, home to outstanding food, a 6,000-bottle wine tower and a divine Clarins Spa. Another must-fly-to island is The Brando on the distant French Polynesian atoll of Tetiaroa. The villas are drop-dead gorgeous, the seafood is melt-in-the-mouth and it gets an extra thumbs up for running off renewable energy drawn from the sun and sea.

If you're Caribbean bound and looking for pure unadulterated escapism, COMO Parrot Cay in the Turks & Caicos remains hard to beat. A favourite amongst A-listers, we're talking R&R central, especially if you hole up in its COMO Shambhala Retreat. Another top-to-toe feel-good idyll is Zanzibar's andBeyond Mnemba Island, accessible only by boat. We love the pristine white sands, authentic beach bandas and the whole vibe is deliciously low-key.

Last but not least is the oh-so-quiet Song Saa Private Island in Cambodia. The 27 eco-chic villas have been built from timber bought from villagers; driftwood has been carved into furniture and Khmer pottery revived to make the crockery. It's paradise with a conscience.

The adventurous ONE

For some of us, it's not enough to go somewhere new and merely soak it up. We're in pursuit of experiences; we want to do something of genuine substance, or to simply be in the presence of the truly remarkable. We don't believe travelling in style should preclude you from savouring these unique encounters. So connect to your inner sense of adventure, without compromising on the level of refinement.

For some to feel travelled,
we need to experience things
we've never encountered before

The one for LUXPEDITIONS

For when the journey really is the destination. The best seat in the house for a widescreen view of the majestic Canadian Rockies and its ancient glaciers, forests and waterfalls, is aboard the Rocky Mountaineer. Complete with a glass-domed coach and open viewing platform, only the fine dining will distract you from trying to glimpse grizzlies, eagles and moose.

>> You may also like: Explore parts of the world that, until now, have been untouchable to the ordinary traveller on a polar voyage aboard the new Scenic Eclipse discovery yacht.

At one with NATURE

Four Seasons Resorts Maldives at Kuda Huraa and Landaa Giraavaru are two boltholes within a UNESCO World Biosphere

Reserve. You can spend the day with the resident scientists to learn about the ground breaking research at the Marine Discovery Centre, help to build coral reef and care for baby sea turtles. Top tip: sign up for the Manta-on-Call service and you'll be rushed by speedboat to where a sighting is made.

>> You may also like: For the front row view everyone wants, we've got mobile camps that move to be as close as possible to the Great Migration in Kenya and Tanzania.

The one for ACTION

For ski and snow buffs, Whistler has a reputation for unsurpassed heli-skiing and boarding. Travel by helicopter to make fresh tracks on otherwise inaccessible vast powder fields and glaciers. Elsewhere in Canada, ascend frozen waterfalls away from the crowds amidst the breathtaking UNESCO World Heritage-rated scenery of the Banff National Park. With one-on-one tuition, embark on a private tour and learn the basics of ice climbing.

>> You may also like: The one way to truly appreciate the vastness of the Serengeti, Masai Mara and Okavango Delta from a perspective others don't get to, is from a hot air balloon.

The one GREAT ESCAPE

Some experiences are simply a matter of putting yourself in the right place. The Ultimate Travelling Camp combines carefully curated and unexpected locations in India with mobile luxury camps, where you're able to experience dramatic landscapes, local festivals and cultural events that would otherwise remain undiscovered.

>> You may also like: Choose to arrive at the remote Six Senses Zighy Bay in Oman by speedboat, 4x4 or paraglider, and once there opt to trek into the canyons to climb and swim through the gorges.

That
sense of place

We're all for delving beyond the surface to discover a true sense of location. Look, feel, listen, touch and taste a world less ordinary.

From colourful cities and markets to majestic forts and remote national parks, India is a cacophony of sights, sounds and smells. To appreciate all its nuances, take in a tour of Delhi, Agra, Ranthambore National Park, Jaipur and Udaipur. This city, palaces and tigers itinerary brings you a large slice of locale.

Over in New York, you can't get more central than The Knickerbocker. Overlooking Times Square (and just steps from Broadway, Bryant Park and MoMA), when you're sat sipping a cocktail at St. Cloud rooftop bar, there's no mistaking where in the world you are. Beyond the bright city lights, Ras Al Khaimah is being touted as 'the next Dubai' and is only an hour's drive from its famous neighbour. Ritz-Carlton has nabbed a remote piece of desert here, an authentic location for its latest Arabian resort. Enjoy peace, adventure and luxury in equal measures.

The ONE for Immersive culture

Those looking for a more engaging take on local ceremonies and activities would do well to consider a Four Seasons beach/mountain combo in Bali. Check-in to Four Seasons Resort Bali at Jimbaran Bay and meet the curator of the resort's Ganesha Cultural Centre – a space dedicated to exhibitions and workshops in Balinese art, music and crafts. Next, head to the utterly magical Four Seasons Resort Bali at Sayan. Reached by a wooden bridge, you cross to another world, deep in the jungle. Adventures include cycling through rice paddies and meeting the locals in nearby villages, or rafting down the Ayung River.

>> You may also like: Experience life on a working tea estate in Sri Lanka.

The ONE for Authentic settings

We love a hotel that sets the scene, and The Resort at Paws Up does just that. Located on a 37,000-acre working ranch in the heart of Montana, its cabins and safari-style tents are enchanting. By day, go riding or cattle driving and by night, listen to ancient cowboy tales round a campfire. Closer to home, the iconic Hotel Excelsior in Dubrovnik effortlessly blends old with new. Graced by royalty and movie stars, the hotel has an air of prominence. Its sea-meets-city location is flat-out brilliant. Brimming with ancient churches, monasteries and fountains, a five-minute stroll will lead you to the medieval fortress walls and the UNESCO Old City.

>> You may also like: There are few kingdoms more spiritual than the monastery-strewn mountains of Bhutan.

*Clockwise from above: The Knickerbocker, New York;
Four Seasons Resort Bali at Sayan; The Resort at Paws Up, Montana*

The ONE for Local spirit

At Four Seasons Tented Camp, guests arrive by long-tail boat and can dabble in anything from early morning hikes and mountain yoga to market tours and planting saplings in the gardens. Follow this with a stay at Four Seasons Resort Chiang Mai for cooking classes with world-class masters, picking rice in the paddy fields and visits to the local hill tribes. Hidden away in shady coconut groves, conclude the adventure at Four Seasons Resort Koh Samui, it personifies tropical Thailand.

>> You may also like: History brought vividly to life by passionate guides at the KwaZulu Natal battlefields in South Africa.

Finding the right room

If you need guaranteed interconnecting rooms, villas or larger suites with enough space for the whole tribe, we know where to find them. What's more, we can often secure rooms and availability for families that others can't, especially during peak school holiday dates.

MAKING CHRISTMAS MAGICAL

The brief:

To create the most magical Christmas getaway for a young family, that exceeds even the wildest expectations.

What we can deliver...

Where better to spend Christmas than in Lapland? We can arrange for a personal invitation to be hand delivered to the family home by an elf, before they fly to Finland aboard a private jet. There will be an elf waiting to welcome them on arrival and accompany them throughout the trip. The first morning will be spent choosing a Christmas tree from the nearby forest and decorating it back at the chalet. Further outdoor adventures include snowmobiling, ice fishing, a husky safari and igloo building. Day two involves a fairy-tale walk through the elves hideaway, a visit to their workshop and a reindeer escort deep into the forest for a private audience with Father Christmas himself. The day ends with a charming dinner in a traditional Lappish tepee. Of course a private photographer will be on hand throughout the adventure to capture the special memories.

To top this experience...

Finnish Lapland happens to be a hotspot for the Northern Lights. Chase the aurora on a nocturnal adventure by reindeer-led sleigh for a glimpse of the dancing colours. Or opt to stay in the warmth and comfort of a glass igloo, for a possible grandstand view of the natural phenomenon through your glass roof.

The ONE for
Special Occasions

*Whatever the milestone, mark it with an extra special holiday in style.
Whether you're celebrating with just two or a few, on a private beach or deep in the heart of the African bush, trust us to find the one you'll never forget.*

The ONE for romantic retreats

Love deserves to be celebrated. Whether you're approaching your silver wedding anniversary or planning a paradisiacal proposal, finding the perfect location is key. From secluded island hideaways to timeless Caribbean classics, we know which hotels will inspire and excite.

Set amongst swaying coconut palms, purple bougainvillea and fragrant hibiscus, Baros Maldives could be considered a blueprint for the ideal tropical honeymoon setting. Offering private sunset sandbank dining and candlelit picnics on the crescent-shaped white sand beach, options for intimate romantic moments are infinite. For an indulgent treat, couples can relax in the spa's double treatment rooms, while those seeking adventure can charter a traditional dhoni around the coral reef for an unforgettable snorkelling and diving experience.

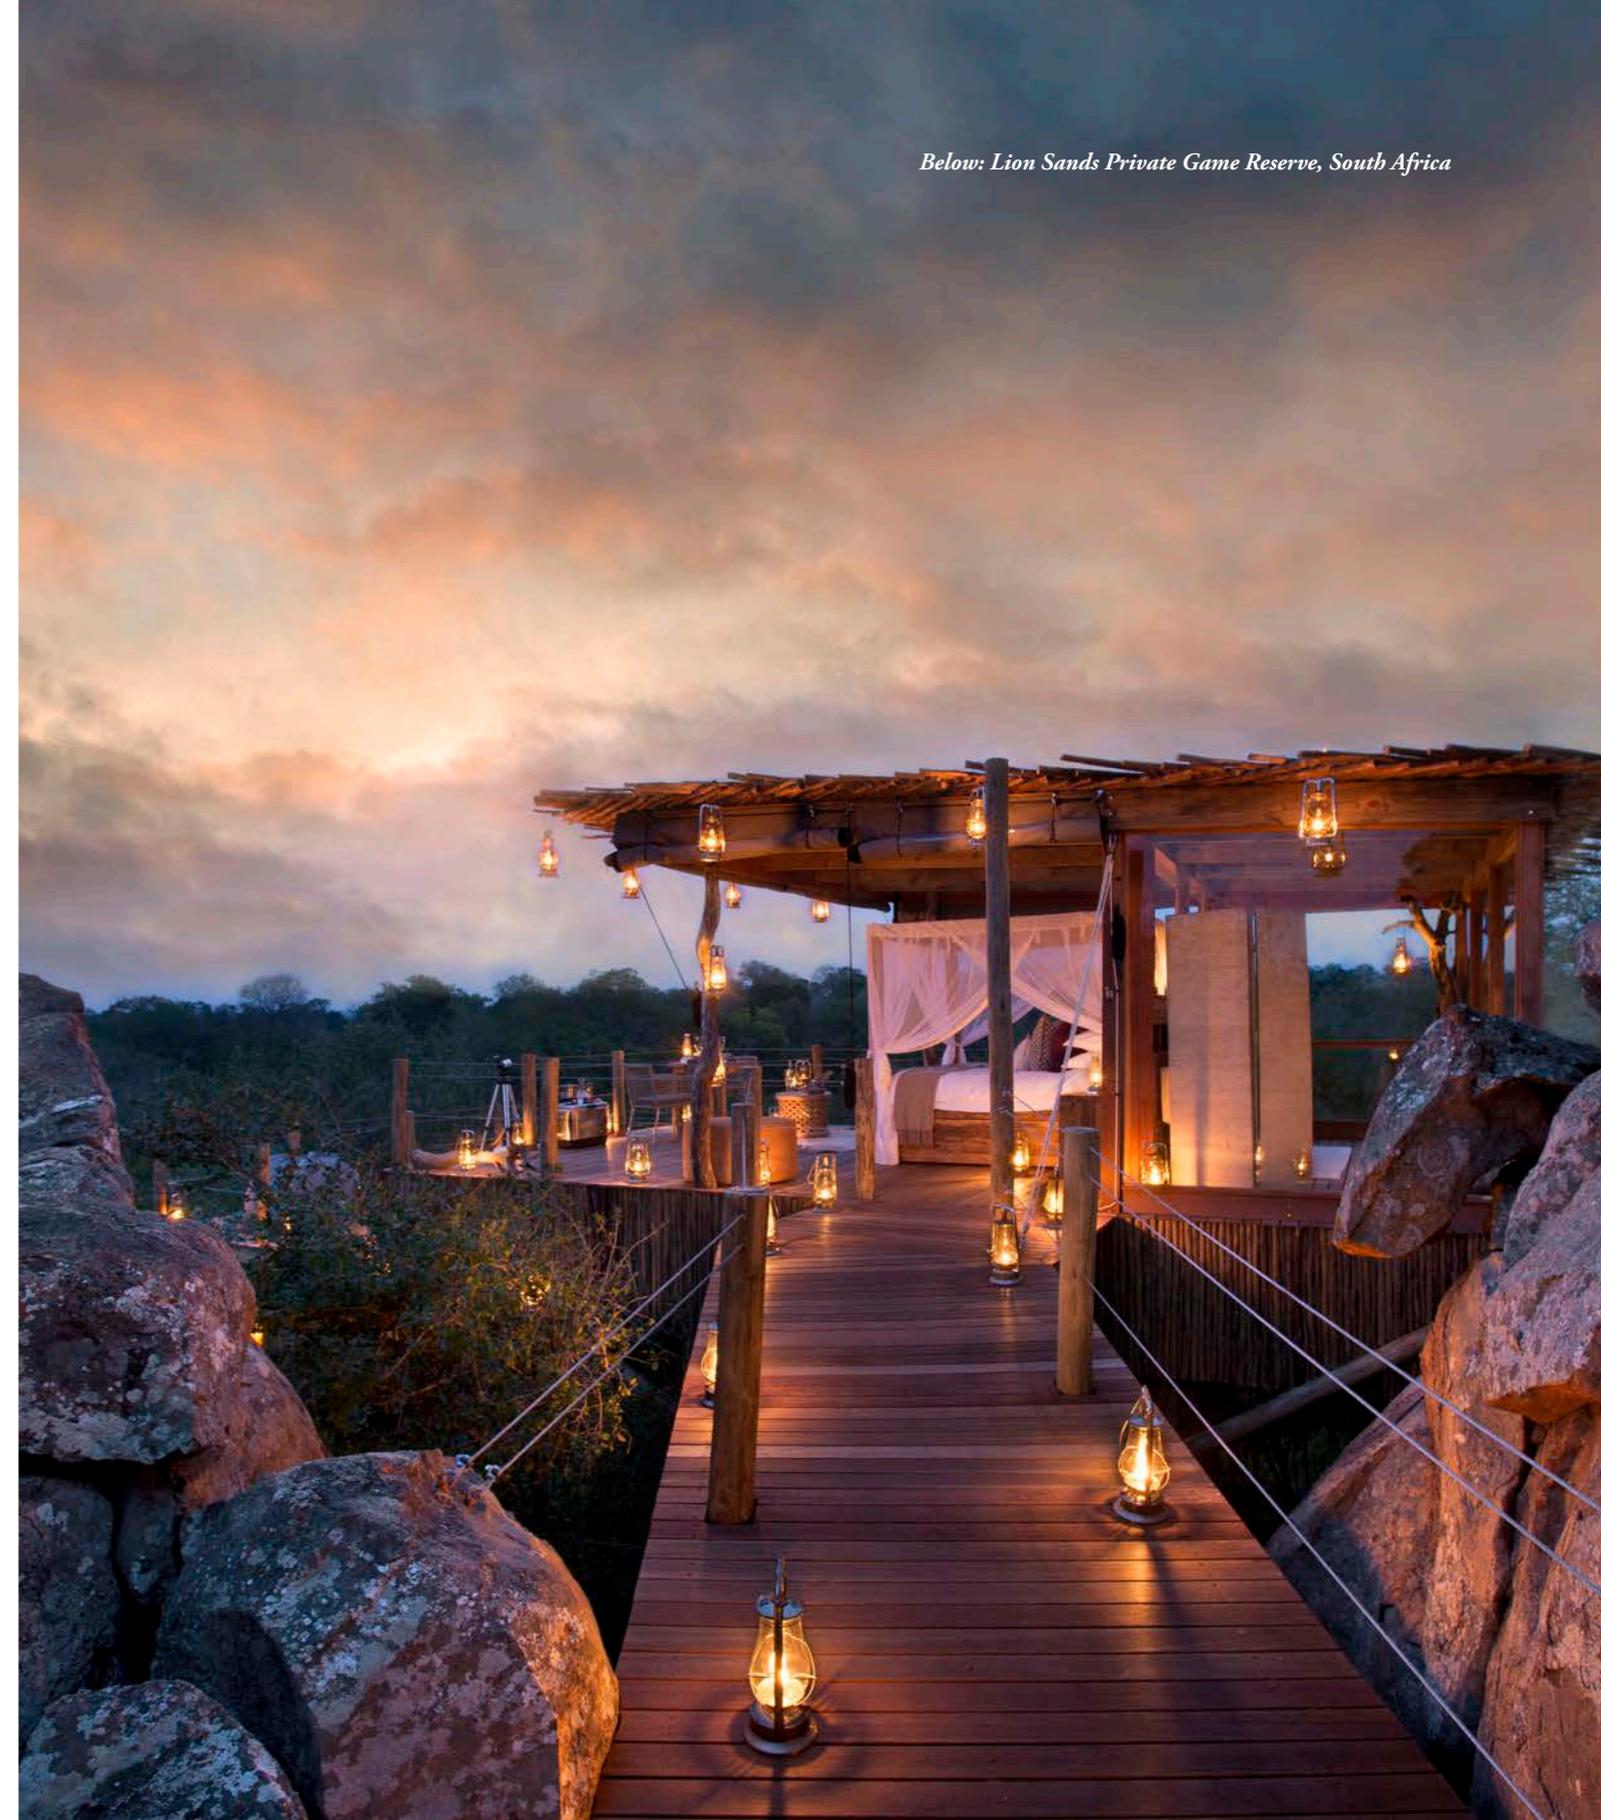

For a more understated and low-key escape, let us introduce you to Villa Orsula, an opulent retreat just five minutes from the Old Town of Dubrovnik. Refined, secluded and with only 13 rooms, the sense of intimacy is apparent from the moment you arrive. Reconnect with your loved one in the pretty terraced gardens as you stroll amongst wild orange trees and lavender, or follow the little path down to the exclusive beach where you will be shown to your dedicated sunbed.

When only the tropical will do, escape to the new and exclusive Sanctuary Pool Villas at Four Seasons Resort Mauritius at Anabita. Situated on the resort's private island, each offers a panoramic lagoon or beach view, an extended heated infinity pool with outdoor sala, and a deep soaking bathtub. Designed to be as private as you desire, you can even enjoy in-villa dining throughout your stay for that truly secluded, hideaway vibe.

A significant anniversary is deserving of an iconic retreat; for conspicuous luxury, understated elegance and exemplary service, Sandy Lane in Barbados is the ultimate choice. We can arrange your VIP fast-track service from the airport direct to your suite, where a bottle of champagne will be waiting to toast your time together. While you're here, everything is unhurried and nothing is too much trouble.

Below: Lion Sands Private Game Reserve, South Africa

The expansive residences at One&Only The Palm (pictured left) are surrounded by views of the shimmering Arabian Gulf and the impressive Dubai skyline. This grand setting, on the most secluded of beach peninsulas on Palm Island, is matched only by the juxtaposing access to the destination's exciting experiences; where riding a hot air balloon over the desert and adrenaline-charged water park frolics can be enjoyed in the same breath.

Although styles vary, all homes come fully staffed with a housekeeper, chef and butler; whilst villas offer private pools, direct beach access, bicycles and golf carts. This blissful 300-acre private island is the ideal spot for a multi-generational retreat.

Families of all sizes are sure to find their ideal roost at Borgo Egnazia in Puglia (pictured below). Think sumptuous townhouses, most with Arabian gardens and private rooftop terraces, and exquisite villas boasting expansive living areas, wrap-around balconies and private pools. Built in the style of an authentic Apulian village, one of our favourite spots is the central piazza where musicians gather in the evening.

The ONE for villa living

A home-from-home, signature living, a luxury abode – however you phrase it, these standalone residences and private villas boast enough facilities, space and staff to leave you to reconnect with family and friends in your own private space.

With the help of a special events manager at Villa der Mar at Marbella Club Hotel (pictured left), celebrations at this six-suite Andalusian villa can be personalised to a tee. There's also superlative round the clock hospitality from a butler, bartender and masseuse. Peppered with original paintings and antique pieces, it's encircled by Alhambra-inspired gardens and has a reserved enclave on the beach.

With a blend of sea-view villas, beach and estate homes; variety is never vexed on Jumby Bay Island in Antigua (pictured above).

The epic ONE

For that extra special, spare no expense, celebration of a lifetime, why not consider one of these spectacularly larger than life stays.

What better place to mark one of life's major milestones than at the world's only exclusive-use UNESCO hideaway located in a World Biosphere Reserve. Four Seasons Maldives Private Island at Voavah is a place for the exceptionally privileged. A beach house, spa, resident marine biologist, dive instructors, 62ft yacht – the unfettered list of indulgencies is endless.

An exclusive honeymoon destination chosen by the royals is often a good indication that a place is pretty special. Yet the real luxury of North Island in the Seychelles is its innate carefree attitude. There are no schedules or rules, no dress code or mealtimes, and personal touches are a way of life. Get the party started at the sunset bar, dine together at the piazza, before moving on to your private beach bash.

At Scarp Ridge Lodge in the town of Crested Butte, USA, you have unique private access to 1,000 acres of your own untouched ski terrain – reached by a smart luxury snow cat. Expect a bespoke adventure itinerary, certified mountain guides, custom-designed Wagner skis and a professional photographer on hand to capture the action on the slopes.

Sophisticated safari living awaits at Singita Serengeti House, Tanzania. Inspired views across the plains of the Serengeti are at the focal point, meaning witnessing a meandering elephant or grazing gazelles while swimming laps of the infinity pool or tucking into breakfast can become commonplace. The greatest perk? The unhurried freedom to explore when and how you like with your own vehicle and ranger.

of a kind

*Is it possible? Does it exist?
We're always on the search for truly unique locations and experiences;
travelling the world to uncover something so special that only a privileged few can enjoy.*

>> Segera Retreat brings us Africa's latest quirky offering in the form of Nay Palad Bird Nest (pictured right). Wake up high above the ground in a structure unlike anything else in the world and soak up those 360 degree views over the plains of Laikipia, Kenya. A picnic breakfast can be enjoyed while watching elephants, giraffe and other wildlife gather at the river below.

The Show Stoppers

We love the experimental and are forever amazed by what architects can dream up. These hotels are different by design.

>> In Sweden, and with another chance to experience nature amongst the tree-tops, Treehotel is a fantastical project made up of seven tree rooms suspended above the ground. The options include a glass mirror cube, a UFO and a camouflaged cabin.

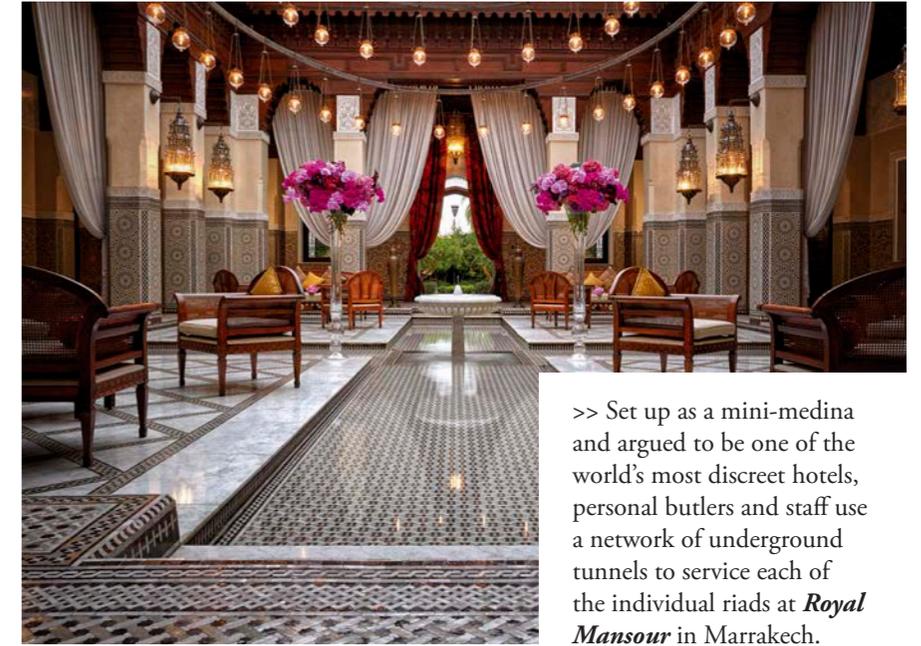

>> The unique art installation that is the Icehotel in Jukkasjärvi is an obvious choice for this edit – created afresh each year, no two Icehotels are ever the same. But for a truly exclusive experience, did you know there's the opportunity to design your own bespoke Ice Suite in conjunction with an Icehotel designer?

PLACES to make you feel ALIVE, SURPRISED and STIMULATED...

>> A view from a 'tent' does not come more dramatic. The luxury pavilions at Longitude 131° in Australia's Red Centre overlook the mighty Uluru or Ayers Rock.

>> Faena Hotel Miami Beach offers a quirky stay with theatrical restaurants, bars, lounges and a rotating schedule of imaginative entertainment.

>> Set up as a mini-medina and argued to be one of the world's most discreet hotels, personal butlers and staff use a network of underground tunnels to service each of the individual riads each of Royal Mansour in Marrakech.

Out of the ordinary experiences

>> In our opinion, one of the most poignant experiences the world has to offer, is to observe a magnificent habituated gorilla family at close quarters. With very few permits granted each day in Rwanda and Uganda, this is an intimate and breathtaking encounter to leave you utterly speechless.

>> The only hotel in the world to be situated on a Formula 1 race track, the Yas Viceroy in Abu Dhabi hovers over land and water, with views of the track right from your room.
